Reporting to the U.S. Wholesale EH&S Manager, the Environmental, Health and Safety Coordinator is responsible for providing environmental, health and safety support to Wholesale Terminals located in the U.S., including environmental, health and safety programs, procedures, policies, regulatory compliance, permitting, audits, inspections, and remediation.

Specific responsibilities will include:

- Support environmental, health and safety regulatory compliance, permitting, and remedial requirements;
- Support EMS and NAWOS implementation and maintenance activities;
- Support Wholesale audit and inspection programs including EMS, PSM/RMP, security, and EHS compliance assurance audits and inspections.
- Support and provide leadership on the Terminal Safety Counsel.
- Support implementation and maintenance of Wholesale environmental, health and safety tracking and management applications including Incidenter, SApec, ECHOS, and e-waste.
- Support internal and external Environmental health and safety reporting;
- Support Wholesale EHS&S on high-profile environmental risks, initiatives, and issues;
- Managing Environmental, Health and Safety Coordinator budget development and cost control.

Qualifications of the position include:

- A Bachelors degree in Environmental Science, Occupational Health and Safety, or related degree;
- Environmental and/or safety certification(s) including CHMM, REM, CSP;
- Minimum of 10 years experience in U.S. environmental, health and safety compliance, systems, inspection, and auditing preferably within a manufacturing and/or terminal plant environment;
- Strong knowledge of U.S. environmental, health and safety regulation;
- Knowledge or experience in implementing environmental, health and safety programs, procedures, and policies;

- Knowledge and experience in environmental, health and safety investigation, inspection and auditing;
- Excellent interpersonal, communication, planning, problem solving, and organizational skills;
- Strong computer skills with knowledge of Microsoft Word and Excel;
- Ability to self promote, work remotely, and handle a large and varied work load;
- Ability to travel approximately 50% of the time or more depending on organizational needs.

Location: This position will be based in the U.S. Midwest. Regional coverage and support currently includes approximately 15 Wholesale Terminals across parts of the U.S. Midwest and South East Region, including IA, IL, KY, ND, MI, NE, GA, NC, VA, and OH.
